The directors may, at their discretion, refuse to admit any person or organisation to membership, where they have reasonable grounds to believe that he/she/it might, if admitted to membership, act in a manner which would damage the reputation of the company, undermine the efficiency of its operations and/or disrupt the proper conduct of its meetings.

The directors will consider each application for membership at the first directors' meeting which is held after receipt of the application; the directors will, within a reasonable time after the meeting, notify the applicant of their decision on the application.
